In 2024, the Council and Minister for RMA Reform made decisions relating to the extent of character areas within Wellington City Council's 2024 District Plan. Live Wellington Trust sought a judicial review of those decisions. That judicial review was unsuccessful.

The Council and Minister for RMA Reform reached an agreement with Live Wellington to pay some of their legal costs. That agreement is reflected in an order made by the High Court for Live Wellington to pay costs of $15,023.60 to Wellington City Council and $13,483.48 to the Minister for RMA Reform. To date, the Council has received an initial payment of $674.04 towards these costs.
