

TRUBY KING Management Board Bio's

1. Nick Jennings Strong community advocate, he has served as the President of the Newtown Residents' Association for ten years soon after he retired and has been a founding volunteer Board Member of the Truby King House and Garden Trust. Retired from the Department of Labour as a Divisional Director something over 20 years ago. Recreationally he represented tramping interests locally and up to national level.
2. Alex Greig Founding volunteer Board Member of the Truby King House and Garden Trust also the current custodian at the house. As architect his passion is around the built fabric of the house and gardens with the goal of "re-using" the house for enjoyment of the public.
3. Neil Meekin is a former Banker originally from Liverpool, England. He is currently actively involved with Social Enterprise in Wellington, a practicing therapist and is a local resident of Melrose. He is a keen advocate of strong community and social health & well-being within this wonderful city.
4. John Warren now retired, is a former Educational Psychologist and lifelong Wellingtonian. He has and continues to be active in a variety of community work and action, and is a long time resident of Melrose.
5. Delia Shanly is an Event and Promotion Consultant with a passion to enhance Wellington's cultural vibrancy. Her recent previous roles were: Communications and Marketing Manager, SOUNZ, Centre for New Zealand Music-Manager, Film Wellington, Grow Wellington-Events Co-ordinator, Wellington City Council and Sales Representative, Wellington Festival and Convention Centre, Wellington City Council.
6. Robert Rapson Founding volunteer Board Member of the Truby King House and Garden Trust. Robert is Artist, known for the glazed clay ships. One of his involvements in the house is around encouraging community art groups to use the gardens and house for exhibition.