Seeks that the Medium Density Residential Zone provisions are recrafted to achieve reasonable intensification whilst maintaining and enhancing the existing valued housing stock.
Design Guides Subpart / Design Guides / Residential Design Guide	Dennis Michael Hunt	119.3	Amend	Considers that refined design is key to the future of the area. The current design guidelines do not exhibit refinement and are based on box like structures and words which read well but do not contemplate how the written features would be practically incorporated. Sun and park-like areas should be prioritised and that exposed decks at higher levels in apartment buildings are not often used primarily due to wind. The steep terrain is advantageous for the creation of sheltered, sunny outdoor areas but would still require at least 30 metres between six-storey apartment blocks on the north east facing slope.	Seeks that more refined design concepts are established for the HRZ (High Density Residential Zone) block of properties between Aurora Terrace, Bolton Street, the Urban Motorway, and Wesley Road.

Design Guides Subpart / Design Guides / Residential Design Guide	Phillippa O'Connor	289.39	Oppose	Considers that the Design Guides should be removed as part of the statutory framework of the plan in respect of restricted discretionary activities as these are subjective and do not allow the rule framework to set clear parameters.	Seeks that the design guides are not a statutory requirement in respect of restricted discretionary activities. [Inferred decision requested]
Design Guides Subpart / Design Guides / Residential Design Guide	Phillippa O'Connor	289.40	Oppose	Considers that the Design Guides should be removed as part of the statutory framework of the plan in respect of restricted discretionary activities as these are subjective and do not allow the rule framework to set clear parameters. Design Guides Subpart / Design Guides / Residential Design Guide	Tapu-te-Ranga Trust	297.35	Support	Supports the reference to whakapapa of place, given their land is a site of significance and will support traditional uses.	Retain G2 (Responding to whakapapa of place) of the Residential Design Guide as notified.
Design Guides Subpart / Design Guides / Residential Design Guide	Wellington Branch NZIA	301.16	Amend	Considers that the Residential Design Guides should be split into three parts and be redesigned to adequately reflect that there are now distinctly different zones for Residential within the revised District Plan. These three distinct zones are low-end MDRZ, high-end CCZ and all the other zones clustered in between. [Refer to original submission for full reason]	Seeks that the Residential Design Guide be split into three parts: low-end Medium Density Residential, high-end City Centre Zone and all zones in between.
Design Guides Subpart / Design Guides / Residential Design Guide	Wellington Branch NZIA	301.17	Amend	Considers that the Residential Design Guide requires clarification. The thorough guidance provided by the now former Multi-Unit Design Guide has now be replaced by vague-sounding statements.	Clarify the Residential Design Guide to be less vague.
Design Guides Subpart / Design Guides / Residential Design Guide	Wellington Branch NZIA	301.18	Amend	Considers that G109 in the Residential Design Guide has vague statements. [Refer to original submission for full reason]	Clarify G109 in Residential Design Guide to provide more guidance on Medium Density housing and High Density Housing needs.
Design Guides Subpart / Design Guides / Residential Design Guide	Wellington Branch NZIA	301.19	Oppose in part	Considers that the City Outcomes Contributions will not maintain the concept of High City / Low City form in the Operative District Plan. [Refer to original submission for full reason]	Opposes G137 (City outcomes Contributions) of the Residential Design Guide.
Design Guides Subpart / Design Guides / Residential Design Guide	Wellington Branch NZIA	301.20	Amend	Considers that the Facades section of the Residential Design Guide (G41) is too short and inadequate and should be amended to be more thorough. The section should include provisions on proportion, materials, texture and colour.	Amend the G41 (Facades) of the Residential Design Guide to include provisions on proportion, materials, texture and colour.
Design Guides Subpart / Design Guides / Residential Design Guide	Wellington Branch NZIA	301.21	Amend	Considers that the Facades section of the Residential Design Guide (G41) should require multi-storey buildings to be designed by Registered Architects, such as the NZIA.	Amend G41 (Facades) of the Residential Design Guide to require multi-storey buildings to be designed by Registered Architects.
Design Guides Subpart / Design Guides / Residential Design Guide	Wellington Branch NZIA	301.22	Amend	Considers that G87 (Balconies and Sunrooms) should mandate the provision of a balcony or deck to every living space in the CCZ, even where something as small as a student housing unit is proposed. The Residential Design Guide states: "Good quality balcony spaces or sunrooms can substantially improve residents' quality of life and increase the value and desirability of apartments to potential buyers". Therefore, these should be mandatory. The events of the last few years with the Covid pandemic showed the world the vital importance of access to external open space. While people in the MDRZ can access a front or rear yard, people living in the CCZ must have access to a balcony space.	Amend G87 (Balconies and sunrooms) of the Residential Design Guide to mandate a balcony or deck to every living space in the City Centre Zones.
Design Guides Subpart / Design Guides / Residential Design Guide	Wellington Branch NZIA	301.23	Amend	Considers that the star rating of importance in Private Open Space and Communal Open Space should be amended to give more importance to multi-unit housing rather than single houses. Single houses under Private Open Space G80 to G84 have a three-star rank, implying they are of highest importance than multi-housing under Communal Open Space in G75 to G79.	Seeks that G75 to G79 (Communal Open Space) in the Residential Design Guide be classified as being of three-star importance.

Design Guides Subpart / Design Guides / Residential Design Guide	Wellington Branch NZIA	301.24	Amend	Considers that items G63 to G72 under the Light section are only concerned with artificial electric light, and do not refer to natural levels of daylight and sunlight. The Lighting section of the Residential Design Guide should be re-titled as "Artificial Light".	Amend the heading of the 'Lighting' section in the Residential Design Guide to rename it to "Artificial Light".
Design Guides Subpart / Design Guides / Residential Design Guide	Wellington Branch NZIA	301.25	Amend	Considers that the Lighting section of the Residential Design Guide should be moved next to sections on Light and Sun (G18 to G120), and Natural Light (G121 & G122).	Amend the Residential Design Guide to put the 'Lighting' section near the 'Light and Sun' and 'Natural Light' sections.
Design Guides Subpart / Design Guides / Residential Design Guide	Wellington Branch NZIA	301.26	Amend	Considers that the Natural Ventilation section of the Residential Design Guide should require opening windows on two separate facades. G123 states: "Ensure habitable rooms, especially bedrooms and living spaces have at least one openable window to an external wall for direct access to fresh air". Research has shown a greatly increased ability for natural ventilation to actually work when there are opening windows on two separate facades, which allows far better pull through of natural ventilation.	Amend G123 (Natural ventilation) of the Residential Design Guide to require opening windows on two separate facades.
Design Guides Subpart / Design Guides / Residential Design Guide	James Coyle	307.28	Amend	Considers that the word 'daylight' is too vague and should be replaced with 'sunlight' as sunlight is direct and can be measured. Daylight can be indirect and is not specific enough to be measured sufficiently.	Seeks that the term 'daylight' be changed to 'sunlight' in the Residential Design Guide. [Inferred decision requested]
Design Guides Subpart / Design Guides / Residential Design Guide	James Coyle	307.29	Amend	The term "daylight" should be amended to "sunlight" in the Residential Design Guide. Buildings should look to solar gain for regulating temperature and need direct sunlight for this. The carbon footprint of buildings need to be reduced and air conditioning usage should be decreased. Natural techniques for ventilation and temperature regulation should be used. Direct sun in Winter should be maximised.	Amend language in the Residential Design Guide to replace "daylight" with "sunlight".
Design Guides Subpart / Design Guides / Residential Design Guide	Bruce Crothers	319.19	Support	Supports G99 to G102 (external bike storage) and considers that these should be carried into the PDP rules, policies and objectives. Design Guides Subpart / Design Guides / Residential Design Guide	Joan Fitzgerald	323.5	Support	Supports GG99 to G102 (external bike storage).	Retain G99-102 (External bike storage) of the Residential Design Guide as notified.
Design Guides Subpart / Design Guides / Residential Design Guide	Bruce Rae	334.6	Amend	Considers that the proper use of Appendices should be clarified. The residential design guide flowchart makes it clear the appendices must be used in conjunction with the main design guide. However, in the 'unqualified' parts of the MRZ the main design guide is only engaged when four or more units are intended for a site. In character areas, an alteration affecting neither floor area nor function of rooms, triggers a requirement to follow both the main residential design guide as well as the character precincts appendix, which seems excessive. Additional scope guidance is needed at the start of the appendices, making it clear that the assessment does not need to expand to the whole of the building on the whole of the site when only limited works on a limited part of the site are contemplated. Clarification of whether a full and expensive assessment or a more streamlined assessment is needed will suffice.	Seeks that the Residential Design Guide Appendices be amended to have an additional scope guidance at the start of appendices, so as to clarify the scope of required assessments.
Design Guides Subpart / Design Guides / Residential Design Guide	Disabled Persons Assembly New Zealand Incorporated	343.15	Amend	Considers that inserting the term 'must' rather than 'should' in clause G37 of the Residential Design Guide provides greater emphasis on the need to meet standards. [Inferred Decision Sought] Amend G37 (Entrances) of the Residential Design Guide as follows: Entrances should must be of adequate dimensions to provide universal access for all and allow for movement from a wide range of users, including moving furniture and wheelchairs.

Amend G96, G97 and G98 (Service elements) of the Residential Design Guide as follows: G96. • • Any and all large plant fixtures should be placed at accessible heights where they can be easily adjusted by the householder concerned, including by any disabled person. Suitable space for natural or open-air laundry drying should be provided, within or accessible from each dwelling, but not within the defined 'principal area' or within shared open spaces that might be used for gathering. G97. • • Any and all large plant fixtures should be placed at accessible heights where they can be easily adjusted by the householder concerned, including by any disabled person. Smaller-scale external service elements such as air conditioning units, water heating units, gas bottles and water tanks, should not be visible from the public realm, dominate entrances or be located in the principal area of private open space or within shared open gathering spaces. G98. • Any and all large plant fixtures should be placed at accessible heights where they can be easily adjusted by the householder concerned, including by any disabled person. Where possible, integrate any necessary security features into buildings or public spaces by designing them intrinsic, unobtrusive, or positive decorative features. Design Guides Subpart / Design Guides / Residential Design Guide	Disabled Persons Assembly New Zealand Incorporated	343.33	Amend	Considers that replacing the term 'abilities' with 'impairments' in clause G132 of the Residential Design Guide is more appropriate. Notes that using the term 'abilities' to refer to disabled people is regarded as euphemistic by many within the disabled community. Considers that the other examples of impairment-based groups should be also identified in the last sentence of same clause.	Amend G132 (Accessibility) of the Residential Design Guide as follows: Ensure developments are inclusive of people of all ages and abilities impairments , including the ageing population, children and pregnant women or parents with infants and toddlers, and people who use mobility aids such as wheelchairs and crutches. [Inferred decision requested]

Design Guides Subpart / Design Guides / Residential Design Guide	Jane Szentivanyi and Ben Briggs	369.18	Support	Considers that it is pleasing to note the mention of embodied energy in the Design Guidelines: Existing buildings contain embodied energy, and their retention avoids the additional use of carbon associated with the construction of new buildings, including in materials, transport, demolition and landfill. Retaining existing buildings in a sustainable long-term use, whether through the retention of its original use or by the adaptation for a new use, can be a sustainable option. Design Guides Subpart / Design Guides / Residential Design Guide	Jane Szentivanyi and Ben Briggs	369.19	Support	Considers that direct sunlight to a home is an integral part of creating and maintaining a healthy home and supporting residents' wellbeing. Retain Residential Design Guide as notified, especially provisions relating to the benefits of sunlight access. [Inferred decision requested]
Design Guides Subpart / Design Guides / Residential Design Guide	Glenside Progressive Association Inc	374.12	Amend	Considers that the Residential Design Guide's section on Built Form should be strengthened to include form, colour and light pollution for housing that is visually prominent. where houses are visually prominent, attention needs to be paid by the architect and builder to the form, shape and colour of the building. This is especially important for houses in high altitude locations or houses which are visible from a distance. It is suggested that the Residential Design Guide refers to the preferred use of forms that harmonise with the landscape where concentrated housing developments are located high on hillsides or close to ridgelines. This includes the use of natural materials, and colour schemes selected from a palette of subdued natural colours that vary from building to building where possible.	Amend the Residential Design guide to more strictly regulate visually prominent form and colours.
Design Guides Subpart / Design Guides / Residential Design Guide	Glenside Progressive Association Inc	374.13	Amend	Considers that the Residential Design Guide's section on Light should be amended to more strongly minimise long-distance and cross-valley light pollution. Light pollution is of special concern when the light arises from new, visually prominent housing developments. Light pollution from a new housing development in Glenside West will adversely affect the Glenside Valley unless measures are taken to ensure that outside lighting including street lighting is diverted downwards and shielded.	Amend the Residential Design guide to more strictly regulate light pollution.
Design Guides Subpart / Design Guides / Residential Design Guide	Guy Marriage	407.13	Amend	Considers that there is now the low-end MDRZ, the high-end CCZ, and all the other Zones clustered in between. The guidelines for what to do in the high density CCZ need to offer markedly different advice from the much lower density MDRZ. The MDRZ in particular is still likely to comprise single family houses for many years to come, and even the new housing in this zone is likely to be mainly just one or two storey high, even if denser than before.	Seeks that the Residential Design Guides are split into three parts redesigned to adequately reflect the different residential zones in the Proposed District Plan.
Design Guides Subpart / Design Guides / Residential Design Guide	Guy Marriage	407.14	Amend	[No specific reason given beyond decision requested - see original submission]	Seeks that the MRZ (Medium Density Residential Zone) is amended to account for how denser housing interfaces with concerns of existing residents in existing housing.
Design Guides Subpart / Design Guides / Residential Design Guide	Guy Marriage	407.15	Amend	Considers that the former daylight access planes almost guaranteed sunlight and daylight for any house in what was the Inner and Outer Residential Zones. The revised recession planes imposed by the new MDRS and the adoption of the MDRZ removes the chance for sunlight, while also reducing the chance of adequate daylight.	Seeks the addition to the Residential Design Guide on how to manage sunlight considerations.
Design Guides Subpart / Design Guides / Residential Design Guide	Guy Marriage	407.16	Amend	Considers that guidance on Medium Density and High Density Housing needs to be so much more, or we will end up with continued urban housing disasters. Seeks that G87 (Balconies and sunrooms) of the Residential Design Guide mandates the provision of a balcony or deck to every living space in the City Centre Zone.
